Start Your Visit at Dayton's Hub for Art & Culture Since 1965

DAYTON, OHIO - Front Street, Dayton's largest collective of artists, artisans, and entrepreneurs, is celebrating sixty years of art, culture, and innovation. Home to over 150 unique shops and boutiques representing hundreds of artists, artisans, and entrepreneurs, Front Street truly has something for everyone.

Dayton, Ohio is a hidden gem in the midwest. Home to innovation, art, and culture, Dayton is a destination waiting to be discovered! With a vibrant art scene, live performances, professional baseball, tons of history, and the National Museum of the United States Air Force, Dayton should be your next stop for a quick getaway. Nestled just on the edge of downtown in Dayton's historic Arts District, Front Street truly is your gateway to Downtown Dayton.

"When I first visited Dayton from Chicago, I fell in love with this city and its people," said Richard Lundin, owner and manager of Front Street. "I want others to see what I fell in love with, so we're always open and welcoming to visitors. Front Street and Dayton truly are a destination to be seen. Come visit us - you won't regret it."

Front Street is open seven days a week from 7:00am - 7:00pm with free parking. Tenants maintain their own hours, so it is best to make an appointment with those you wish to see. A full tenant listing is available on our website. Each month, Front Street hosts an Art Hop on the First Friday & Saturday of the month featuring fun activities for the whole family. Most tenants are open during Art Hops and other special events.

There's always something happening at Front Street - and 2025 is no exception. Monthly Art Hops occur on the first Friday and Saturday of each month, featuring fun for the whole family and a vibrant live atmosphere. Special events are planned throughout the year to celebrate sixty years of art and culture, culminating in a 60th Anniversary Bash on Saturday, September 6, 2025.
